

October 16th Field Trip to San Pedro

USS Battleship Iowa and other interesting Photo

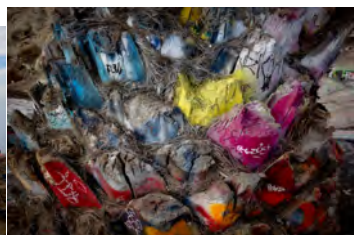

Shoot sites in and around San Pedro

Carpool Location—South end of the Auto Club of SoCal (AAA) Auto Club map

The USS Iowa is located at 250 S. Harbor Blvd, in the city of San Pedro and is open daily from 10-5 pm. Covid Protocol being adhered to, masks are required.

https://www.pacificbattleship.com/museum\_visit/hours-directions/

The Sunken City: The Sunken City is the name given to the site of a natural landslide which occurred in the Point Fermin area of the San Pedro neighborhood of Los Angeles, starting in 1929. A slump caused several beachside homes to slide into the ocean.

Paseo Del Mar
Los Angeles, California, 90731
United States

View on Google Maps

Empty Port Los Angeles

FORT MACARTHUR IS NOW A small WWII museum located in the yawning corridors of an historic coastal defense battery.

3601 S Gaffey Street
Los Angeles, California, 90731
United States

33.7097, -118.2938

View on Google Maps

Visit Website

There are many interesting places to visit and photograph in San Pedro from Empty Warehouses, Beaches, Marina to old deco buildings.....Enjoy the day

Recommendation for meet up: Ports of Call Fish Market

Recommended meet up 12:45 (tap on photo for information and directions)

Graffiti
Angels
Pools
Gate

graffiti pool angeles gate

Abandoned SlaughterHouse Cannery tap on

abandoned slaughter house cannery

Korean friendship bell
Angels Gate Park

